CHARGES AGAINST HODGES DISMISSED

Complainants Required to Present New Allegations in October.

POLITICS FIGURING.

Counsel For Defendant Makes Answer to All Charges Brought Against Superintendent.

Charges against Superintendent W. T. Hodges ,of the Alexandria County Public Schools, were dismissed yesterday by the state school board sitting in Richmond because they were indefinite and a new hearing set for October 15th, when the complainants will be required to present new charges in person

After an executive session, Superintendent Stearnes stated that the board had unanimously decided that as questions affecting both the veracity and conduct of superintendent had been raised, while there was no just grounds for a continuance on the charges filed by Mr. Clements in reference to the petition of Douglas and others, yet the board desired the fullest investigation of all acts of its county superintendents, and felt that it was best for the schools of the county and fairest to Mr. Hodges to grant a continuance, in order to investigate the matter affecting the superintendent's veracity. The petitioners were directed to consolidate their charges, and to furnish a copy to Mr. Hodges within ten days, the whole case being continued until the next regular meeting of the board on October 15, at 10 a. m.

The board, which includes among its members Governor Mann of the State of Virginia, re-elected Superintendent Hodges two months ago to the position he holds. Shortly afterwards charges were filed in an effort to have the board reconsider the appointment. Attorney James E. Clements, of Alexandria county, former superintendent of public schools, presented the charges to the board. In brief, they are that he was employed under contract to serve for the fixed salary of $1,200 a year. Later,the three districts appropriated $200 each, making his salary $1,800 a year; one specification charged him with official misconduct. Mr. Clements also charged that Mr. Hodges had concealed the facts from the public preventing the appropriations from becoming known, to the detriment of the public school service. The "indictment" charged that he knowingly, surreptitiously and wilfully accepted and appropriated the school funds and was therefore guilty of official misconduct.

Mr. Clements went on to say that Mr. Hodges had refused to recognize the teachers, residents of Virginia, in selecting the teachers for public schools, only seven out of forty-one white teachers being residents of Virginia, thirty-four of the teachers coming from the District of Columbia. This was also designated as official misconduct.

Mr. Clements then read a charge that made it appear that Hodges had acquired a school warrant, presented the same to a third party and had him endorse the same and cashed it at a bank in Rosslyn.

In a matter of purchase of a lot in Arlington District for Barcroft School, it was stated that the board had purchased three acres of land for $1,500, and that there was a deed of trust on the same tract, and for three years the board had been paying interest on the land which the board was supposed to own.

The board of the county or a majority had served official notice on Mr. Hodges that the question of his removal would be considered. Postponement was suggested.

Hon. Robinson Moncure, of this city representing Mr. Hodges, said that he would surprise Mr. Clements.

"I shall neither file a plea of abatement nor a demurrer to the charges," declared Mr. Moncure. "I am ready for a hearing now. The fact is that some sort of notice had been served on W. T. Hodges, showing that he traducers did not even know the name of the gentleman they were attacking.

"This morning at 9:30 o'clock half an hour before the board was to convene, an officer of the city of Richmond had to serve a copy of the charges on Mr. Hodges."

"Now they come after four years to ask that the case be continued. We are ready and I'll give you a fair, old-fashioned Virginia fight. We are ready for a hearing now, after half an hour.

"These attacks are the work of miserable agitators| They are sore-headed little politicians and men who want the office for themselves. The charges before you. Separate the chaff, and if there be any grain whatever consider that."

Mr. Moncure then took up the charges seratim, and said he was pleased to answer them and to disprove them by the superintendent and others who were in attendance.

Mr. Moncure and Mr. Clements became involved in a little colloquy. The board had to insist on orderly procedure.

Taking up the charges that the proceedings of the school board were secret, Mr. Moncure said that the proceedings were matters of public record and could be seen at any time. He declared that Mr. Hodges had been sent into the district, had increased the attendance more than 100 per cent, and had made an excellent superintendent.

Taking up the charge of cashing school warrants, Mr. Moncure said that was true. The teacher, a colored woman had asked him to get the money,as she wanted to catch a atrain. He had asked a reliable business man to endorse the warrant and get the money. The man did so and got the money and gave the face value of the warrant to the teacher.

As to the title of the land bought for school purposes, Mr. Moncure said that the county of Alexandria had what was called an Attorney for the Commonwealth, and it was his duty to examine the title of such property, having been especially retained by the board for that purpose. The officer had failed to put the deed on record, but for what reason he did not know.

Mr. Stearnes, replying to a statement and request for a continuance, said that unless there was some other reason advanced he would overrule the request for a postponement.

Frank S. Lyon, an attorney residing in Alexandria county, asked permission to examine the witness as a citizen and resident. He said he had no interest other than the welfare of the schools. He had seen the so-called charges for the first time today.

"And you are the editor of a paper which had been and is supporting the conduct of the public school system and the administration of Mr. Hodges," remarked Mr. Clements.

SNAPPERS REFORM TOPERS.

Get Into Lockup and Prisoners Mistrust Their Eyes.

Sharon, Pa., Aug. 16.—Ear-splitting screams caused the reserves in the police station which adjoins the jail here to make a rush for the alcoholic ward of the latter institution Tuesday. When the policeman arrived on te scene they were confronted by a dozen "old rounders," in paroxysms of fear, pointing at several crawling snapping-turtles, and imploring "them to be taken away." Several begged for pledges to sign.

The snappers had been left in a cell by Turnkey J. K. Werner, and had escaped from the bag in which they had been placed.

CORSET SAVES HER LIFE.

Stops Bullet From Woman Enjoying Rest on Roof of Home.

Nw York, Aug. 16.—Ms. Ida Lerman, of No. 365 Madison street, is alive because she wore her corset Tuesday night, when she went to the roof of her home to enjoy some fresh air before retiring.

She had hardly taken a seat in a rocking chair on the roof when a bullet from a .22-calibre rifle struck her on the left side and was stopped by one of the steel ribs in her corset. The rib was bent, and the force of the bullet bruised Mrs. Lerman's breast. A physician found the bullet in her

PROTESTS INNOCENCE.

Money Lenders Say Story of $7,500 Loan Bill Slush Fund is Absolutely False.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Congressman James T. McDermott, the union labor representative from Chicago's stockyards district, has characterized as untrue and manufactured from whole cloth, the statements made before the House lobby investigating committee last night by Isaac H. McMichael, formerly McDermott's confidential man.

McMichael told the Congressional committee that McDermott received more than $7,500 from Washington loan sharks and pawnbrokers to use his influence in defeating the loan shark bill.

To his friends last night, in vehement language, McDermott characteried McMichael's statements as false.

Washington pawnbrokers and money lenders also deny the statement that they contributed to a fund for the defeat of the loan shark bill. They declared that no such steps had ever been taken by them.

AGED WOMAN ASSAULTED.

Mrs. Mary Townsend, of Rehoboth, Md., Attacked by Negro, Beaten and Robbed.

Crisfield, Md., Aug. 16.—Bleeding and unconscious from a severe wound in the head, Mrs. Mary Townsend, 72 years old of Hehoboth,was found in the country road a short distance from Green Hill at a late hour Thursday

When pedestrians first came upon the body of the aged woman it was thought that she was dead, but when carried to a nearby house she was revived. She said she was attacked while walking along the country road by a negro whom she identified as Arthur Tilghman. The negro knocked her down, choked her almost into insensibility and then struck her a blow on the head with a blackjack, she said.

After beating the woman until she was unconscious he robbed her of $20 and left her helpless in the road.

The news of the assault spread to all parts of the county and a party was organized to lynch the negro should he be caught. Sheriff Harding P. Tull organized a posse and after scouring the country arrested the negro at 3 o'clock yesterday morning near Cottage Grove, many miles from the scene of the crime.

Tilghman showed fight when approached by the officers, but was overcome. He is said to have admitted the crime to the officers and in order to avoid any attempt which might be made to lynch him Sheriff Tull rushed the negro to the jail in Princess Anne in an automobile.

The negro was given a preliminary hearing before a justice of the peace yesterday afternoon and held for the grand jury.

MEXICAN AFFAIRS SHOW NO CHANGE

Huerta May Be a Candidate For Election to Presidency.

TO HURRY GOV. LIND.

Has Had an Interview With Mexican Foreign Affairs Minister—Paving Way to Huerta.

Mexico City, Aug. 16.—Provisional President Victoriano Huerta has given out what is considered to be an intimation that he would be a candidate for election to the Presidency in the autumn, and it is rumored strongly that as a preliminary to his campaign, he will be succeeded in the provisional Presidency by Frederico Gamboa, whom he recently recalled to this country from a foreign mission of foreign relations.

The report ran that Minister Gamboa would assume the provisional Presidency as soon as it should be resigned by General Huerta. A denial of the rumor was issued by the foreign minister as soon as it was called to his attention.

President Huerta's intimation of his intention to run for the Presidency on a constitutional basis came in a roundabout way. He was asked if it was his purpose to become a candidate for election as President.

The present head of the Mexican federal government would not give a definite answer. He said it was undesirable for him to make at this time a statement as to the possibility of his candidacy, but that he might announce his intention in a fortnight.

That guarded reply by General Huerta was regarded generally as meaning that they at least was considering the advisability of making such a move toward the solution of the present situation in Mexico.

President Huerta is regarded as the favorite Presidential possibility among prominent men in the capital. Even the anti-military liberals are talking of him as the only man available to be chosen as the head, of the national government.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Stirred by the renewed activity of members of the enate in criticising President Wilson's course in handling the Mexican situation, it is believed here that efforts are being made by the White House and the State Department to hurry along the mission of former Governor John Lind. Administration officials refused today to discuss a report that the Administration, through Mr. Lind, is hopeful of being able to persuade the Huerta government to hold the president elections next month, instead of in October, when, ordinarily, they would be held. Unless some assurances were coming from both sides in Mexico that the elections would be peaceful, it is thought doubtful that there would be any hope of advancing the date of the elections.

Mr. Lind is already ahead of his schedule. After his arrival in Mexico City, last Sunday, it was stated in Washington that, on account of the strong anti-American sentiment aroused by his mission there, the President's messenger would go very slowly before taking any definite steps toward a fulfillment of his mission.

In the last few days, however, he has managed to interview the Mexican minister of foreign affairs and to pave the way for an early presentation of this Government's views to President Huerta.

MONDAY'S BIG LAND SALE.

Burton Bros., Coming to Auction off Lots on Monday Morning.

A great deal of interest is being taken in the auction sale at Mount Ida next Monday morning at 10:30 o'clock when many beautiful lots in this subdivision will be sold regardless of their former prices. The Atlantic Coast Realty Company which is conducting this sale for James S. Groves, president of the Mount Ida Company, declare that the lots have been placed in their hands without any restrictions and will postively go to the lowest bidder.

It would appear that there is an excellent chance for some one to take a little flyer in real estate on Monday. Values are on the constant rise between Alexandria and Washington and Mount Ida occupies a position without an equal in many respects for a suburban residence. Lots there must continue to enhance in value.

The all star brass band of the Realty Company will arrive here Monday morinng and render a concert in this city before preceeding to Mt. Ida The famous Burton Bros., will conduct the auction.

WANTS ABSOLUTE DIVORCE.

Planitiff Alleges Misconduct on Part of Wife.

An absolute divorce from a wife who has secured a limited divorce from him and an award of alimony was asked yesterday in the Supreme Court of District of Columbia by Benjamin B. Merryman. Merryman names a corespondent, and alleges specific acts of misconduct on a river steamer.

Merryman informs the court in his bill that he married Edna Thompson in Alexandria, May 21, 1904, and that they lived together until June 9, 1911. On July 18, 1911, he says, she sued him for a partial divorce, alleging extreme cruelty. He answered, denying the charge, and filed a cross bill, charging her with misconduct, and naming two corespondents.

On February 14, 1913, the court dismissed his cross bill, he says, and gave his wife a limited divorce, awarding her alimony and counsel fee. Merryman alleges now that before the separation and during the pendency of the suit his wife almost daily was secretly and clandestinely in the company of corespondents named.

He alleges that on July 14 last they went together to River Springs, Md. On the trip, Merryman alleges the corespondent secured only one stateroom. A trip on a steamer on the night of July 20 last, also figures in the allegations.

For some months, Merryman states, his wife has been living at a house in G street northwest, and that since July he has had the premises under almost nightly surveillance. He alleges that the corespondent has been in the habit of calling on his wife three or four times a week and staying till the early hours of the morning.

GLYNN DISCHARGES DUTY AS GOVERNOR

In Possession of Executive Chamber Where Sulzer Holds Forth.

WOULD EJECT SULZER

Friends to Hold Mass Meetings in Different Parts of State—Rioting is Feared.

Albany, N. Y., Aug. 16.—Backed by nearly every state official, Martin H. Glynn is today discharging all of the duties of governor. He is not in possession of the executive chamber, where Wm. Sulzer still holds forth.

The regular routine of the state operations, however, excepting those of the department of prisons and the highway department, in which Sulzer appointees dominate, went over his desk in the lieutenant governor's rooms.

Pressure is being brought to bear on Glynn from many sources to order a descent by force on Sulzer and eject the impeached governor and his followers from the big executive offices. So far Glynn has not responded to this suggestion. He has insisted that he will not enter unseemly wrangle. He has ordered that all of the men under his control refrain from any open criticism of the Sulzer forces. Up to the present time he has refused to be drawn into a position where he would have to express any opinion on the merits of the charges against Sulzer.

Friends of Sulzer have been arranging mass meetings in various sections of the State, and the threat has been made that his adherents would flock here in hundreds to express in person their criticism of the legislature for voting the impeachment. If this is done the problem of preventing a riot will be a serious one. None of the Sulzer leaders would admit today that they favored such a plea, but telegrams from various localities told of meetings planned.

It was expected that Sulzer, having the definite refusal of Glynn to agree to court proceedings before him, would be forced to act. He and his lawyers conferred early today on this matter. They are admittedly at a disadvantage in the fight. The original proposal that they prepare the way for a habeas corpus action by pardoning a convict from Sing Sing prison and then having the warden hold up the execution of the pardon has been blocked.

Secretary of State May will not permit the use of the Great seal of the State to attest the document and without that it is worthless. Judge Herrick, chief counsel for Sulzer, was carefully examining precedents today and was expected to find a way out.

Richmond, Aug. 16.—Chief of Police Werner has received a letter from a dead man.

That is, the writer says he is dead. "I'm the man," the letter begins, 'who was struck and killed dead by lightning May 26, 1913."

The man signed himself Layton Sawyer. He appears to have revived, for he asked the police to send him some money with which to found a church in Darlington, S. C.

"God gave me a message to take to all the world," the letter says, "and I'm the founder of the church and the name of the church is the Church of All Nations."

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS.

Ten Days' Conference in Session at Port Norfolk.

Norfolk, Aug. 16.—Pastor W. J. Stone, of Richmond, president of the Virginia Conference, Seventh Day Adventists, was the principal speaker Thursday night before the conference and camp meeting being held at Port Norfolk. His address marked the beginning of a ten days' conference, which will be attended by delegates from all sections of the State.

In his opening sermon Pastor W. J. Stone stated that meetings similar to that which is being held here are underway in every state in the Union as well as the principal foreign countries, giving the same message that Jesus Christ is coming again in this generation and calling all to obedience to the true God the creator of heaven and earth.

Said the speaker: "This controversy between Christ and Satan has been going on for nearly six thousand years but it is to have a speedy end."

Mr. Stone began his sermon with the first chapter of the Bible and ended with the last book. He briefly reviewed creation, the fall of man, his shameful wanderings in sin and the great plan of redemption.

He laid great emphasis to the fact that God's plan of salvation has always had special features connected with it applicable to each succeeding generation, the time and conditions making necessary the giving of special messages. Such was the condition of the world at the time of the flood that God sent by Noah a warning message telling all of the coming deluge. Unbelief in that special message left them to their fate.

The same was true in the days of Lot, when Sodom and Gomorrah were destroyed. Both these instances are set forth by the Master as examples of the condition of the world before His second coming. "Today," declared Mr. Stone, "we are living just before Christ's return, therefore a message is due telling the world of this greatest of all events. It may be found in the last book of the Bible, Revelation, chapter 14," declared the speaker.

He said: "This special message which is given in three parts is to go to earth's remotest bounds. The first angel bears the solemn message that the hour of God's judgment is come,' the second says Babylon is fallen, and the third and last sounds a solemn warning against false worship and calling all to the keeping of the Commandants of God and the faith of Jesus."

"This, said the speaker, "is why we call ourselves Seventh Day Adventists We believe the Lord's advent to be near and that obedience to the entire ten Commandments is incumbent upon all Christians.

SERIOUS CHARGE.

Lynchburg Man Arrested on Suspicion of Arson.

Lynchburg, Va., Aug. 16.—C. L. Burnett, a middle-aged man, was arrested Wednesday afternoon at the Union depot while seated on N. & W. train, No. 17, upon a warrant charging him with setting fire to a house belonging to Mrs. Hattie Burnett, his wife, on the night of April 8. The arrest was the culmination of an investigation by Detective G. W. Scott, of the State Bureau of Insurance, and was made by Policeman Paris, Howell and Carter.

It will be recalled that during last March Burnett fired several shots on Fifth street at a man, who, he alleged, had been paying attentions to his wife. This, it is stated, started the difficulty between the couple and a short while later, Mrs. Burnett charged, she and her child were run out of their home by her husband at the point of a revolver and were forced to take refuge with a neighbor. The wife claims her husband ran her away because she refused to sign a release to certain property in their possession. At all events, things became such that a divorce suit is now pending between Burnett and his wife.

While Mrs. Burnett was staying with relatives in Lynchburg, because, she says, she was afraid to return home, a small house belonging to her was burned on April 8, the building and household effects being totally destroyed. The adjoining house, belonging to her husband, was slightly damaged. It was subsequently reported to the State Bureau of Insurance that Burnett carried a large amount of insurance on his house and that he also had insured his wife's house in his own name for $750.

ELKS IN RICHMOND.

Program for State Reunion on September 2nd And 3rd.

Richmond, Va., Aug. 16.—The official program for the seventh annual convention of the Virginia State Association of Elks, which is to be held in Richmond September 2 and 3, shows that the committees on arrangement have no intention of letting business interfere with the pleasure of the 1500 visitors expected here. Although the program seems to indicate that the entertainment committee has covered the divertisement field "from soup to nuts," it is confidentially whispered around the Elks' Home here that many surprises are being planned, and that the nature of these events will not be disclosed until they are "sprung" on the visitors.

No expense will be spared in giving the delegates and their feminine companions a royal time. In Richmond Lodge 45 are to be found some of the wealthiest and most prominent men in the city, and they are giving freely of their coin of the realm, as well as of their wit and energy to make the seventh annual convention one to go down in the history of Elkdom as a convention in which nothing was left undone to make the delegates and their ladies absolutely at home and happy during every minute of their stay in the capital city.

Following is the official program and the members of the committees working for the entertainment of the local lodge's 1500 guests.

Commission Government.

Fredericksburg, Va., Aug. 16.—The first year of Fredericksburg's new form of government under the city commissioner plan was completed Thursday and the results are gratifying. The city commissioner is R. Stuart Royer, who commenced his duties on August 15, 1912. During the year he has made extensive improvements, especially to the streets of the city.

WARRENTON HORSE SHOW.

Classes Well Filled for Annual Exhibition Next Week.

Warrenton, Va., Aug. 16.—With the favorable weather conditions promised by the weather bureau for August 20 and 21, the fifteenth annual exhibition of the Warrenton Horse Show Association which takes place next Wednesday and Thursday will be the banner exhibition thus far in the history of the society. The entries closed on August 9th and the secretary, F. R. Batterlee, reports a larger list by a considerable number than heretofore. Two days of the finest horse show sport are promised and the forty classes for riding, driving and breeding animals are well filled.

Warrenton this year is assured a dustless horse show. The ring and grounds have been put in perfect condition and the frequent rains have made nature do her best with the turf which was never better than for the coming show of 1913. Information is being sought by prominent horsemen and horsewomen in several states so the outlook is most encouraging to the management in every particular.

The advance sale of reserved seats and boxes is up to this time larger this year than ever before and many notable guests will witness the greatest open air show in American, which has long been Warrenton's boast and justly so.

The local interest in the show has been stimulated by a return to the ring of various prominent horsemen, who have been absent for some years. Among these is Mr. James K. Maddux, former master of the Warrenton Hunt Club and one of the best known horsemen in the country. Mr. Maddux has a large string of top-notchers which he will exhibit.

ITALIAN ASSAULTS GIRL.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Aug. 16.—Little Vincenza Pola, daughter of Pola Pola, a workman at the big Spring stone quarry, two miles from here, was criminally assaulted late yesterday afternoon in a field near the quarry. Vincenzi Recci, 48 years old, an Italian workman, is being pursued by a posse of officers, deputy sheriffs and a number of quarrymen.

Recci, it is said, was caught by the father of the child, who attempted to kill the man with a pickhandle. Recci beat the father off and escaped to a nearby woods. It is said by the officers that there is no doubt of Recci's guilt, and the crime, following close upon a similar one a few days ago, is expected to result in trouble when Recci is caught.

The Truth About Electric Cooking

For large families where the average domestic help is employed and a large amount of cooking done, Electric Cooking will be found more expensive, and in most cases not advisable.

In small families, where no help is employed, and where nice equipment is desired, Electric cooking will be found many times more convenient, more certain in results and safer in operation—as well as reasonable in cost.

In every family a few utensils for early breakfast emergency and special uses—and for cheering up cold meals with a warm dish or two—is highly advisable from every standpoint, including that of economy.

TOBACCO HAS COME TO STAY.

There was a sharp debate in the Senate recently over the tobacco schedule in the tariff bill during which Senator Nelson, of Minnesota, made a plea to put tobacco on the free list.

In defending the tobacco tax Senator Nelson took the ground that this was a necessary of life, a stimulant. Chewing and smoking tobacco are the "poor man's diet," he insisted.

It is seldom people in prominent positions make apologies for the use of tobacco, and those fond of this pleasant narcotic will naturally thank Senator Nelson for speaking in defense of this product of nature.

A large percentage of the people of the world, civilized and uncivilied, enjoy tobacco in one form or another, and it has long since become a staple product in different quarters of the globs. It fails, however, to appeal to some persons, and this class is generally the most censorious towards those who indulge in the plant.

The author of Hudibras speaks of people who condemn acts they are not inclined to, but condone those they have a mind to. These two lines tell the story.

The aborigine smokes his pipe of peace, and the honest toiler, after his frugal breakfast, lights his pipe, shoulders his shovel or pick and starts cheerfully for his day of toil. After having borne the fatigues of the day, and the often scanty meal discussed, he enjoys his pipe or his plug surrounded by his family.

Tobacco does not make a fiend of the father of the little group, but, on the other hand, tends in its way, to accommodate him to his up-hill plod of life.

But there have always been some inveterate enemies of the Indian plant, and they condemn its use on all occasions. Many persons in England were equally as fierce foes of coffee when it was introduced.

The London coffee house struggled for a long time against the prejudices of people who saw the berry afforded gratification to others, and, in a mischievous spirit, attempted to eleminate it.

Tobacco has come to stay. It is no weed, as some have named it, but requires more labor, care and expense of the planter than a crop of some cereals.

It is one of nature's products. Why should men cast anathemas upon it?

The city of Charlottesville is to have a business manager who will have charge of all the business of the city now in hands of committees of city council. He is to receive a salary of $50 per month. That all the duties of an executive or administrative character performed by any of the several committees of the Council of said city, under any ordinance now in force, be conferred upon and required to be exclusively discharged by the said municipal business manager, the said committees to act in an advisory capacity; and that in case a committee representing a department shall, by a vote of all its members at a meeting called with notice to the said municipal business manager, disapprove of any proposed act in that department the matter shall be referred to the Council for its action.

That the said municipal business manager shall, as near as possible to September 1, 1913, and quarterly thereafter, make up and present to the Council an estimate of all sums of money necessary to carry on the operations of the city in the various departments for the ensuing year.

That the said municipal business manager shall, at the end of each quarter make a written report to the council of all transactions and operations during the said quarter, including a detailed statement of all bills approved by him showing how and where the various sums were expended during said quarter in order that all disbursements may be related to their objects in the several departments.

MISBRANDED MILK IN STATE

Two Concerns Fined For Violating Pure Food And Drugs Act.

Washington, Aug. 16.—The United State department of agriculture has published notices of judgment in which two defendants, charged with adulterating and misbranding of evaporated and condensed milk were found guilty under the food and drugs act and fined.

Three of the cases were brought by the deprtment of justice against the P. E. Sharpless Company, doing business at Rising Sun, Md. Two of these cases were based on information charging that the Sharpless Company shipped quantities of evaporated milk, which was adulterated and misbranded, from the state of Maryland into the District of Columbia, and into the state of Virginia.

The alleged adulteration of the product was based upon the fact that the analysis of the government's chemist showed a certain valuable constituent of the milk, viz: butter fat, had been in part abstracted.

The misbranding was charged because it was labaled. "Evaporated Blended Milk," whereas an official analysis by the government indicated it was evaporated skimmed milk. The third case against this company was brought on the ground that shipment of so-called evaporated blended milk into New Jersey was misbranded because, according to government's claim, it was labeled so as to deceive and mislead the purchaser to believe that it was "Evaporated Blended Milk," when it was evaporated skimmed milk. The defendant was found guilty in all three cases and fined $20 and costs in each case.

The case of United States vs. William Richman, of Sharptown, N. J., was brought on the charge that the defendant shipped a quantity of so-called condensed milk which was adulterated and misbranded, from New Jersey into the state of Virginia.

The government concluded that the milk was adulterated because the butter fat had been partly removed from the same; and that it was misbranded because the label represented it to be condensed milk when such was not the fact. Upon defendant's plea of non vult, a fine of $100 was imposed.

FREE-FOR-ALL FIGHT.

Thrilling Scenes After Adjournment of Court.

San Francisco, Cal., Aug. 16.—The government rested in the case yesterday of Maurey I. Diggs, charged with F. Drew Caminetti with violation of the Mann act, and the defense began its efforts to prove that Diggs and Caminetti did not transport Marsha Warrington and Lola Norris from Sacramento to Reno for immoral purposes unlawfully.

After court adjourned Diggs got into fresh trouble. Leaving the Federal building by a side entrance to shield his wife, his mother, his father and three aunts from public curiosity, he was ambushed by a squad of newspaper photographers. The women tried to run but the photographers kept pace with them, snapping their cameras as they gave chase.

Somebody snatched at a camera, somebody punched a photographer in the face, bystanders joined in, and in an instant there was a free-for-all fight at the center of a swirling crowd. Drew Caminetti was swept in to the vortex and began to struggle with the rest. It became so complicated that the squad of police who came running to the spot bundled the whole party of principals into a patrol wagon and took them to the nearest station.

There it developed that one photographer had been hammered on the head with something hard—what or by whom he could not be sure. A reporter said that the photographer had been smashed in the face with his own camera. As the upshot of the whole affair Diggs was released, and a friend of his, a law clerk, was charged with assault and battery.

CHURCH AND SUFFRAGE.

Archbishop Says No Definite Stand Has Been Taken.

Milwaukee, Wis., Aug. 16.—"I do not believe that the Creator intended the position of woman in the world should be the same as that of man," said Archbishop Sebastian G. Messmer, of Milwaukee, in an address before the members of the Catholic Press Association a day or two ago in which he spoke against woman suffrage.

"However," he added, "I would not dare to come out with a positive statement that agitation for woman suffrage is against the rules of the church. The church has not taken any definite stand and until it does each individual has a right to think, talk and act as he sees fit. There has never been a clear expression of what the traditions of the church would be."

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctored lots for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work.

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 48 years years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.
